Senior Class History

In September of 1956, seven green freshmen climbed the stairs to Reynolds High School for the first time. They were: Alvin Meritt, Marvin Scheuler, John Scoville, Jerry Clark, Harlan Cordry, Phillip Connell, and Marjure Bodtke.

Our officers were as follows:

President-----John Scoville
Vice-President-----Harlan Cordry
Secretary and Treasurer-----Marjure Bodtke

A week after school the Seniors very cruelly initiated us.

In September of 1957, six experienced Sopomores returned. John Scoville continued his studies at Hebron.

Our officers were as follows:

President-----Jerry Clark
Vice-President-----Phillip Connell
Secretary and Treasurer-----Marvin Scheuler

The next year we were proud to be "upper classmen."

Our officers were as follows:

President-----Harlan Cordry
Vice-President-----Alvin Meritt
Secretary and Treasurer-----Marjure Bodtke

A week after school started we selected our class rings. They were a "Star" design.

We presented our Junior Class Play in November. The name of the play was "Spooky Tavern."

The Junior-Senior Prom was held in the Reynolds gym, April 24, 1959. The theme was "Gateway to the Stars."

At last the day came when we were Seniors.

Jerry Clark and Harlan Cordry resumed studies elsewhere the second semester. Eleanor Aughe joined our class the second semester.

We presented our Senior Class Play on April 1, 1960. The play was "House for Sale Haunted."

Our officers were as follows:

President-----Alvin Meritt
Vice-President-----Marvin Scheuler
Secretary and Treasurer-----Marjure Bodtke

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1960 being of sane and fatigued mind as a result of our years of hard study, do hereby bestow the following to those who are left behind to their struggle.

- TO THE JUNIORS: We will our ability to be on the honor roll.
- TO THE SOPHOMORES: We will our ability to be upper classmen.
- TO THE FRESHMEN: We will our ability to grow up.
- TO MR. HARGER: We will success in all sports.
- TO MRS. POTTER: We will a certain expensive picture.
- TO MR. FEE: We will our ability to live a long time.
- TO MARTHA HARGER: Alvin wills himself.
- TO DARRELL GRIDER: Eleanor wills her ability to keep quiet.
- TO DALE DUIS: Marvin wills his ability to hang on to girls.
- TO JANICE BODTKE: Marjure wills her ability to find a guy and hang on to him.

Senior Class Prophecy

Ten years have passed since the Seniors of 1960 have graduated. Here is what happened to them.

ALVIN MERITT-After law school he became a lawyer and is happily married, to his doctor wife Martha.

PHILLIP CONNELL-After High School Phil became a race driver. Today he races daily at the Indianapolis Speed Way.

MARVIN SCHEULER-Marvin is now a successful coach at Princeton. For a side line he plays a Saxophone for Lawrence Welk.

ELEANOR AUGHE-Eleanor is now a newspaper reporter for the New York Times. She has just completed her second trip around the world.

MARJURE BODTKE-Marjure is now a flower gardener at the multi-million dollar Coordsen estate.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR PROM

The Junior and Senior Banquet and Prom was held in the Reynolds Gym on May 6, 1960. A lovely banquet was served to nearly 25 guest at 6:30. During the banquet some very enjoyable entertainment was provided by the Junior Class. Darrell Grider was Toastmaster. The Sophomore Class had the honor of serving the guest.

Immdediately following the Banquet the guest journeyed to the dance floor. The dancing area was a lovely decorated place, which portrayed there theme of "ORIENTAL GARDENS" exquisitely.

The evening was concluded following the dance. All who attended enjoyed both the banquet and lovely decorations.

SENIOR SNEAK

The Senior Class of Reynolds High School left for their Senior Sneak on April 29, 1960. They departed at approximately 10:30 the evening of the 29. They journeyed to Denver Colorado and spent Saturday touring the Denver Post. Sunday they went to Colorado Springs and surrounding territory, viewing many places of intersst. Monday they went through the Canon City Prison. They returned home and arrived at 11:00 P.M. Tuesday.

This trip was enjoyed by all who went. Many strange and wonderful sites were viewed. Everyone enjoyed eating in a variety of restaurants.

Senior Class Play

The Senior Class Play was presented on April 11, 1960 at the Reynolds gym. The name of the play was "House for Sale--Haunted". It was written by Jay Tobias and was a royalty play.

The story of the play took place in the home of the late Mr. Timothy Tugwell. Throughout the play many mystery effects were used. Ghost were plentiful and a variety of characters were displayed. The idea of the play was centered around scaring Tug Ralston who was just to conceited for words.

"THE DARLING BRATS" was presented by the Junior Class on November 13, 1959.

Cynthia Darling, who supports her young orphan sisters and brother, is greatly perturbed because Aunt Agatha, a comely young widow, lavishes expensive gifts upon them and is spoiling them rotten. Cynthia determines to get Agatha's influence away from the Darling children (who are perfect little hellions!) by marrying her off to almost anyone. Everyone has their own idea on who Agatha should marry and play a thousand tricks to prove it.
